

Borrowed survival. Imported technologies. in debt future.
Misery? Delay? Residue of a History? Dependence? Periphery of a world?
Last in the world ranks of the Indicator of Human Development...
Human Underdevelopment??

No data says

the ingeniousness at work with the ends of string, clippings of wood, scrap or clay with the makeshift techniques, the low pieces and the cloth remainders to build

No data says

the colors of the Life the imposing landscapes, the inimitable hospitality and cultures the desire, the festival, the mutual aid, the sharing out the fabrics, the headdress, the laughters, the courage and the patience of the women to dream

No data says

the guards of the deserts, these worlds without borders first mondialists, first localists they ensure, in silence, the bond with the hinterland and the survival behind the city a foot in the city, a foot in the box to make

No data says

the cuts and the interior exiles, the movement and the wait, the oversight and the rest the oneiric escape and the magic incantations the resistances and the resourcefulness, the deaf pregnancy of the castes and the dodging which withdraw to the erosion in the city the need for gratitude to be

No data says

the disenchantment of the national conscience the mishaps of a development reduced to civil servants or to experts who live in a world and think in an another a task of going through the differences a new triangular trade of the thought and knowledge the distrust of the ex-colonized towards his own culture
To be true

No data says

the new cultures scattered in acts the kept silent sobs and the fraternal frays They are not of recognized reason They do not have the word They are not of her words to tell it

NO DATA SAYS IT

If an ex-colonized dies, it is only to miss its death of a colonized